Title: Powers and Duties of Trustees

Related Policy and Procedures:

Divisions of Responsibility: President's Office; Institutional Research, Planning, Effectiveness and Technology

The Trustees of College of The Albemarle are hereby vested to exercise all of the powers and duties as proscribed in Chapter 115D of the North Carolina General Statutes and as authorized by the North Carolina State Board of Community Colleges. As a body corporate, the Trustees are authorized to do all things necessary and proper to organize and operate College of the Albemarle consistent with laws and State Board rules and regulations.

The Trustees hereby incorporate by reference the College of The Albemarle Board of Trustees By-Laws, which shall take precedence over any policy or procedure adopted by the Board or College.

As part of its commitment to the governance of the College, the Trustees shall define and regularly evaluate the responsibilities and expectations of itself and its members. The Trustees may use external resources, such as a facilitator, to assist in the self-evaluation process.
